Letter to SAC, Chicago

EDWARD DAVID VOGEL, was.

If not previously done, you should obtain at least one page of known handwriting of Vogel which should be retained in your office file, a Photostat of which should be forwarded to the Bureau.

You should determine who the law enforcement officers and officials are that Vogel reportedly was paying money to for protection in Chicago as set out in last paragraph, page 12 of rerep. Every effort should be made to determine how many years he made such payments and whether or not payments are being made at the present time.

You should carefully check subject's current activities and report all contacts made by Vogel with any of the remaining element of the Capone syndicate in Chicago.

This case must receive continuous and preferred active investigative attention.

Grand Jury Hears Key Juke Figure

Hint U.S. Panel Probing Anti-Racketeering Violations

A key figure in Chicago area juke box operations went before the federal grand jury Thursday in the reported opening of an inquiry into possible Hobbs anti-racketeering act violations.

Earl Kies, president of Recorded Music Service Association, 188 W. Randolph, was reported to have taken with him association records.

The association is a trade organization whose members operate most of the Chicago area jukeboxes—estimated at more than 125,000.

KIES also is general manager of Apex Amusement Corp., 4220 Lincoln, the secretary of which is Edward Vogel, reputed Cook County slot machine king.

The inquiry, directed by Assistant U.S. Attorney John J. Quain, is reported aimed at uncovering possible Hobbs act violations in juke box operations here.

The act prohibits extortion of money through threats of violence.

As president of the association, Kies is successor to Phillip Levin, brother of the late Hymie Levin, Capone hoodlum.

DURING a 1955 federal grand jury probe of possible anti-trust violations in juke operations, Kies was threatened with contempt action for reluctance in answering questions about Vogel's role as Apex secretary.

The 1955 inquiry was followed by two actions against the J. P. Seeburg Corp., Chicago juke box manufacturer, described as the largest in the country.

On Jan. 15, 1957, Seeburg was fined $2,000 on a criminal conspiracy indictment involving restraint of trade.

In February, 1957, Federal Judge Walter J. La Buy ordered Seeburg and various juke distributors to invalidate an agreement setting up juke box sales territories.

NEW ACID RAIDS BARED; ACCUSE TWO HOODLUMS

Ross and Rini Linked to Coin Game Attack

Alex Ross, 46, crime syndicate hoodlum already under $4,000 bond on charges of malicious mischief and confidence game, was identified yesterday by the wife of a tavern owner in whose tavern two coin-operated machines were damaged by acid.

Mrs. Mary Smerch, wife of William Smerch, operator of a tavern at 2004 Chicago av., identified a picture of Ross as that of a man who came Bruce Smerch, 11, showing his father, William, how his fingers were burned after acid had been poured on pool table in Smerch's tavern into the tavern last November and told the Smerches they would have to get rid of a bowling game, which did not bear the label of the Chicago Independent Amusement association, 165 E. Ontario st.

Ross and a companion, James Rini, 39, of 1456 Orleans st., were identified in three previous acts of terrorism by three other tavern operators as the result of an investigation into their activities by The Tribune. The violence appeared to be part of a well organized campaign to control the placement of coin-operated amusement machines in places of business.

Summoned by Senators

The Senate rackets investigating committee has been trying to find the books and records of the amusement association and has subpoenaed Ross to appear and tell what he knows about it. Charges have been made that the association's agents use terror

Farmer Honored

Beardstown, Ill., Feb. 15 (AP)—Arthur J. Cording, 34, of Galena, a general farmer of 868 acres who is a father of three and a Sunday school teacher, was named today as the state's outstanding young farmer. He was picked by the Illinois Junior Chamber of Commerce. William S. Stetson of Milan was awarded second place. Wayne Friedrichs of Sterling was third.

ist tactics to keep coin-operated machines out of local taverns.

The Smerches also operate a pool table game which bears the association card, and a juke box. Mrs. Smerch said Ross returned to the tavern about Dec. 1, left an association card, and again told them they would have to get rid of the bowling machine.

Then, later in the month, a man Mrs. Smerch identified from a photograph as Rini came into the tavern and when he left, it was discovered that acid had been poured on the pool table game—apparently by mistake, since this was an association machine.

Son Suffers Burns

The acid was discovered when the Smerches' son, Bruce, 11, placed his hand on the machine and suffered minor burns.

About the middle of January Rini and another man unidentified, came into the tavern. When they left, it was found that acid had been poured on the bowling game, not operated by the association.

Ross is scheduled to appear before Judge Cecil C. Smith in felony court on March 13 to answer the charges of malicious mischief and confidence game. Similar charges are pending against Rini, who is sought.

An example of flagrant violence, hitherto unreported, in the campaign of terrorism against coin machine operators not affiliated with the association was disclosed to The Tribune last night.

Five Shots at Machine

Early last October, two men entered a tavern at 3700 Wallace st., approximately two blocks from the home of Mayor Daley. Joseph Spagnola, 23, was tending bar. They began to play a bowling machine, installed a few days before by Herman Klebba, 1115 W. 31st st., an independent operator.

Then both drew revolvers and began shooting at the machine. Two customers in the bar fled. Spagnola ducked behind the counter. He counted 11 shots. The two men walked out.

Damage to the machine was placed at $350. Spagnola said the two men were about the size of Ross and Rini, but he was unable to identify pictures of them.

111 Slot Machines Seized in Van Abandoned 2 Days

A moving van loaded with 111 slot machines was seized yesterday by police in the 1700 block of Wallen av., where it reportedly had been parked and had gone unattended for two days.

The police haul consisted of machines of the 5 cent to 50 cent variety. The value of the machines was estimated at more than $50,000.

The serial numbers on all the machines had been filed off. Police said this was an indication that the federal gambling tax had not been paid on any of the machines.

See Syndicate Link

Police theorized that the crime syndicate had collected the machines from private clubs and other places which were giving them up because of a recent edict by Gov. Stratton that slot machines would not be allowed anywhere.

They said it was highly unlikely that a number of private clubs would get together to move and store expensive machines in a common warehouse. The moving job was typical of a crime syndicate operation.

Capt. William Balswick of the police commissioner's office was notified by a tipster of the parked truck, red in color and as clean as tho it had just been washed.

Taken to Bureau

He sent Sgt. Timothy Allman and men of the gambling squad to the vicinity. They had the truck under surveillance for some time, but when they found no one around it, and no one apparently interested in it, they opened up the van and found the machines.

The policemen then started the vehicle by "jumping" the ignition and drove the van to the rear of the detective bureau at 1121 S. State st.

Police opened the machines there and found all had been emptied of coins.

The van had the name of Dunn Brothers Storage company lettered on its sides, and also the notation: "Leased to Allied Van Lines." The new tractor attached to the van had only 500 miles recorded on its speedometer.

Late last night, police searched the Dunn company warehouse at 6542 Clark st. and found 487 paper boxes filled with lottery tickets and punch boards. Efforts were being made to learn who rented the storage space where the boxes were found.

A. PERSONAL HISTORY AND BACKGROUND

Subject's Residence

T-1, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on December 23, 1957, that he has been unable to ascertain the current residence of subject. He advised he had learned that at the time VOGEL moved, an "off brand" mover had transferred his household goods; however, he did not recall the name. T-1 advised that during subject

[redacted]
On December 27, 1957, Mr. [redacted]
[redacted] Lustig Realty Company, Room 1100, 180 West Randolph, was interviewed by SA PAUL B. FRANKFURT. He advised that in December, 1956 ELSIE WARTENBERG, subject's sister, purchased cooperative apartment 1902 in a new modern-type glass and steel apartment building at 320 Oakdale. The purchase price was in the vicinity of $35,000 to $40,000 and the apartment consisted of 5½ rooms. Information in their files reflect ELSIE WARTENBERG to be a widow, 55 years of age, and that she has resided at 5040 North Marine Drive for fifteen years. She does her banking at the First Commercial Bank, Morse and Clark Streets, where she is personally known to Mr. STOUT, President. Her net worth was reported as being in excess of $250,000.

② R Mr. [redacted] stated that last spring, Mrs. WARTENBERG purchased a second apartment, 1903, stating she needed more room as her children visited her from time to time. She explained she would occupy the apartment with her niece and one other adult. The second apartment was also purchased for approximately $40,000 and is adjacent to their other apartment. He said no mention had been made by Mrs. WARTENBERG of VOGEL residing in any of the apartments; however, VOGEL was seen entering and leaving the building on numerous occasions after possession of the first apartment. VOGEL was recognized by one of the tenants after he had apparently been residing there for some time and it was then the building corporation realized he was living there.

CG 92-345

R ③ He stated for this reason they have no background information on VOGEL, as ELSIE WARTENBERG, who he understood was VOGEL's sister, had "fronted" for him on both transactions. He thought it strange that ELSIE WARTENBERG still maintains her residence at 5040 North Marine Drive. He said VOGEL had caused no trouble at the building, but had spoiled several doormen in the building through his excessive tipping, and that these doormen have been dismissed. Despite the fact that VOGEL has caused no trouble, Mr. [] considers him an undesirable tenant and would like to get rid of him.

R In about August, 1957, he said VOGEL decided to combine apartments 1902 and 1903 and knocked out all walls and that extensive remodeling is going on at the present time and he states the cost will be in the vicinity of $100,000. He said the present layout will in no way resemble the former floor plan. He understands an intercom system was being installed in each room as wires were put in during remodeling. Mr. [] remarked that for the past three or four months, he does not believe VOGEL has been residing at this place due to work in progress, however, he understands VOGEL has a German maid who acts as housekeeper.

b7C

Mr. [] stated VOGEL is almost impossible to get in touch with, but at times he has gotten word to him through [] who apparently is friendly with VOGEL. He said [] several [] around town, one being at the [] [] He further remarked that the architect doing the remodeling in VOGEL's apartment is [] who also [] and others at [] Chicago. Mr. [] further stated that [] [] resided on the premises at [] and that any contact there should be made through him.

He also advised that VOGEL's parking stall for his car is the first stall on the east side of the building.

On December 30, 1957, Mr. [redacted] Lustig Real Estate Company, advised he made an inspection of VOGEL's 19th floor apartment at 320 Oakdale. Mr. [redacted] was admitted to VOGEL's apartment by his maid, name unknown. She is described as follows:

VOGEL's apartment at present is undergoing extensive remodeling for the purpose of combining apartments 1902 and 1903, purchased in the name of ELSIE WARTENBERG, VOGEL's sister. Each apartment originally consisted of 5½ rooms. It is pointed out that the building housing VOGEL's apartment is about three years old and is of modernistic glass panel exterior walls, floor to ceiling in all apartments. The building is 21 stories high and is situated between Lincoln Park and Sheridan Road on Oakdale, where an excellent view is afforded of Belmont Harbor, Lake Michigan and of Lincoln Park. It is expected the remodeling will be completed around February 15.

At present time workmen are constructing a walnut panelled bar in the living room which will be adjacent and in conjunction with the kitchen of one apartment. All carpeting and furniture have been removed and the redecorating has not yet started. It was noted that an intercom system has been installed in all rooms throughout the apartment. The layout will consist of a large living room, approximately 25' by 30', complete with bar and kitchen facilities, a den with bookcases from floor to ceiling and a built-in television set on one wall, three bedrooms, one dining room, large kitchen, one wardrobe room, and two baths. It is to be noted that one bath next to the master bedroom is quite ornate, having the bathtub slightly raised and encased in light green ceramic tile, two small steps above the floor. Special opaque glass doors provide entrances to separate shower and toilet stalls. A 2" gray marble slab about 6' long houses two oval lavatories.

Mr. [redacted] also advised that on December 31, 1957, a check in the amount of $489.60 was received as the monthly assessment on VOGEL's two apartments. He said this check came in an envelope bearing return address of "Executive Offices of Hotel St. Clair". The check was drawn on the First Commercial Bank and signed E. WARTENBERG.

On January 10, 1958, Mr. [redacted] St. Clair Hotel, 162 East Ohio, reviewed the hotel records under the name of the subject and his various aliases as well as under the names of the Apex Amusement Corporation and the De Luxe Cigarette Company, without locating any record. Divorce Records

On December 17, 1957, Investigative Clerk [redacted]
[redacted] checked the records of the Circuit Court under Divorce Docket Number B131594. A review of this docket revealed the following information:

MAMIE VOGEL, complainant, 1516 South 60th Court, Cicero, Illinois, filed a petition for divorce against EDWARD DAVID VOGEL, defendant, on May 12, 1926, charging adultery. The records reflect that they were married on May 8, 1915, City Hall, Chicago, and separated on August 25, 1925. The records reflects MAMIE VOGEL testified as follows:

Information Received From Police

CA ✓ On January 24, 1958, Chief of Police WILLIAM C. GRIFFIN, Skokie, Illinois Police Department, advised he has been associated with the Police Department for the past twenty-five years and a resident of Skokie for thirty years.

CG 92-345

✓ He stated there was no question but that EDDIE VOGEL was in charge of all slot machines in the Northern suburbs. He advised, however, that there were no slot machines in Skokie at the present time and did not believe that any were operating in the area at this time. He said that ten or fifteen years ago, he had participated in a raid of a barn located in Skokie, wherein $185,000.00 worth of slot machines and equipment were found. He understood that this was all the property of EDWARD VOGEL and it was subsequently destroyed. Chief GRIFFIN advised that he has never met VOGEL personally, but stated he had in the years past met his brother, WILLIE VOGEL, who appeared to be the subject's front man. ✓ Chief GRIFFIN was unable to furnish any current information or activities of subject VOGEL, but advised that further information might be received from AXEL STOLBERG, 5020 West Jerome, Skokie. He commented that STOLBERG was formerly a captain on the Skokie Police Department, who retired in August, 1953. It was his impression that STOLBERG had cooperated in years past with the Mayor's Office during which time slot machines were operating in the Skokie area and that he might have some knowledge of VOGEL's operations.

Chief GRIFFIN also suggested that ROBERT E. BOWMAN, a former Policeman on the Skokie Police Department, who is now retired, might be able to furnish some information. It was his understanding that BOWMAN had acted as a guard in various gambling joints during his tenure with the Skokie Police Department.

According to Chief GRIFFIN, BOWMAN is presently residing in Round Lake, Illinois, where he may possibly be performing the duties of a judge.

Chief GRIFFIN also suggested that Former Chief of Police JOE GABLE of the Morton Grove, Illinois, Police Department, may be able to furnish some information as to VOGEL's operations.

✓ On January 29, 1958, JOE GABLE, 9040 North Waukegan Road, advised he was formerly the Chief of Police at Morton Grove, Illinois, from 1945 until June, 1955. He commented that in 1927, he had worked with ROGER TOUHY and his gang

✓ from 1927 to 1931, at which time he assisted in making and delivering bootleg beer.

✓ GABLE recalled he first ran across EDWARD VOGEL during the late 1920's at which time he was a shill at the White House, located at Irving Park and River Road, which was a gambling house operated by MATT KOLB, who was subsequently killed in a tavern in Morton Grove.

✓ Mr. GABLE recalled VOGEL in the early days had a tavern on the South Side of Chicago somewhere, but did not know where. He said he first recalled VOGEL coming into prominence in the slot machine business in about 1937 and that during that time he frequented a hang out at Chester's Place, located on Grand Avenue and Highway 45. GABLE advised that while he was employed by the County Police, he participated in a raid of slot machines during which time seven or eight slot machines were picked up in Franklin Park, Illinois. As the result of this raid, he then met and talked with VOGEL who seemed to be the boss of the outfit.

CF GABLE further commented that [about seven or eight years ago, while he was Chief of Police of Morton Grove, seven or eight slot machines were picked up in a raid, after which time VOGEL came to his house and tried to induce him to release the machines. He said VOGEL offered to "take care" of him, but that he had refused.] He stated other than this, VOGEL had given him no trouble and at no time had threatened him in any way.

According to GABLE, back in 1946 or 1947 VOGEL was frequently accompanied by a man known only to him as "MIKE" and who had three or four gold teeth, upper front. He described him as follows:

Age	42 (1946)
Height	5' 11"
Weight	190 pounds
Hair	Brown
Nationality	Irish Descent

CG 92-345

CP GABLE further recalled that [VOGEL had operated a gambling joint at the Vernon Club in the Northwest suburbs and that his right-hand man at that time was a man named CRUSE, formerly of Skokie, but who has since departed for Nevada, address unknown.

GABLE admitted that seven or eight years ago, he, along with TONY FRAGASSI of Skokie, and a number of others, were indicted in connection with an investigation of slot machines operating in Cook County. He said this indictment was dismissed and there were no convictions.

CP According to GABLE, several years ago EDWARD VOGEL operated a book at a tavern operated by FRANK ENGELS, which is located on Lake Avenue in Glenview, Illinois, about two blocks east on Waukegan Road on the north side of the street.

CP According to GABLE, VOGEL also operated a book and gambling house about five or six years ago at Ralph's Place, in Northfield, Illinois, and it was located three blocks north of Winnetka Avenue on Waukegan Road.

CP According to GABLE, [from about 1937 to 1948 VOGEL operated slot machines, handbooks, roulette wheels at various gambling establishments in all of the suburbs of Chicago, but that since 1948, this activity has been considerably curtailed and that there are only a few slot machines operating at this time.]

CP According to GABLE, there is a slot machine presently operating at Fat's Place, which sells fish bait, which is located on Rand Road just north of River Road. He also advised there is another slot machine operating in a tavern, name not known, on the west side of Milwaukee Avenue just north of Harlem Avenue. He said this is a 5¢ machine which is located in a small room in the back.

CP GABLE further commented that [redacted] had formerly operated about seven pinball machines and several jukeboxes in the [redacted] area; however, he said when state licenses on pinball machines went into effect, he understood [redacted] ceased his operations and that at that time he understood VOGEL had contacted [redacted] and wanted [redacted] to act as a front for him in placing pinball and jukebox machines in the [redacted] area. He said [redacted] had come to him for advice and he had told [redacted] to refuse VOGEL's offer. GABLE was also of the opinion that [redacted] was fronting for two other men, names unknown, who had been told presumably by VOGEL or his men to get out of the business.]

b6

According to GABLE, HEINE ZEUTSCHEL, who operates the Sail Inn on Waukegan Road in Glenview, in years past had difficulty of some kind with VOGEL.

GABLE advised further that it was his understanding that VOGEL owned the Charcoal Oven at Simpson and Mc Cormick Roads in Skokie and that he [redacted] a man known only to him as [redacted]. He said the Charcoal Oven was formerly operated by PETE HONAKER, who is the present owner of the Oasis Club on Howard Street, Chicago, Illinois.

GABLE also advised that he understood that [redacted] [redacted] Skokie Highway just north of Oakton, had some difficulty with the syndicate four or five years ago, when they attempted to install a cigarette vending machine in his place of business.

AXEL STOLBERG, 5020 West Jerome, who advised he retired from the Skokie, Illinois Police Department as Captain in 1953, was interviewed on February 3, 1958, by SA PAUL B. FRANKFURT. He stated he had been a resident of Skokie for about thirty years. He said he knew EDDIE VOGEL was in charge of all slot machines in the Northern suburbs and if any club or tavern has a slot machine, it would have to be VOGEL's. He said he never met VOGEL and has had no dealings with him and during his tenure on the Police Department knew of no trouble caused by the syndicate in Skokie. He said that slot machines picked up by the Skokie Police were always broken up and destroyed. He stated he had no knowledge of any graft paid to any city official to allow slot machines.

STOLBERG advised that BOB LINDELOF, 8128 North Laramie, OR 3-4438, who operates the General Music Company at 8020 Lincoln Avenue, OR 3-0666, has a number of jukeboxes around town and may be able to furnish some information as to pressure by syndicate in placing jukeboxes.

CP / On February 3, 1957, Captain WILLIAM BALSWICK, Commissioner's Office, Chicago Police Department, furnished a report reflecting that FRED THOMAS "JUKEBOX" SMITH, Business Agent for Local 134, International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, has been active in this field since 1939 and has been the prominent factor in the operation of Local 134 and key man among coin machine operators in the Chicago area. This report indicated that the different associations fathered by "JUKEBOX" SMITH for financial gain do not appear to be a sole operation of his, but that it was the opinion of an unidentified source that on his own, he is nothing more than a muscleman with penchant for making money (and that through the years his course had been steered by EDDIE (SLOTS) VOGEL and associate DANNY (GIMP) MAHONEY.)

CP / On April 3, 1950 jukebox manufactureres and operators complained of payoffs to FRED SMITH on jukeboxes. SMITH then stated he did not get a quarter from anyone. It was alleged at this time by 100 jukebox operators that for the previous ten years they had been forced to make payments to FRED "JUKEBOX" SMITH. The amount was withheld by the collectors each month. The take was indicated to be around $5,000.00 per month. The report reflected further that in May, 1950, they were paying $1.50 per month per machine to a "shakedown" organization known as the Chicago Independent Amusement Association, which "JUKEBOX" SMITH was backing and they complained that 80% of this went to "JUKEBOX" SMITH for nothing, and that he was getting $8,000.00 per month on 10,000 machines.)

CP / The report further indicated that "JUKEBOX" SMITH has been active in the labor field for the past thirty years and has acted as a business representative, enforcer, slugger or in any capacity the situation called for. Over the years

CA he has been associated with every known hoodlum and has been a close associate of EDDIE VOGEL. "JUKEBOX" SMITH's brother, FRANK SMITH, was reported to have been a record changer for the Apex Amusement Corporation operated by the subject.]

The report further reflected that Chief Investigator [] and State's Attorney [] released the statement that they were dropping the investigation inasmuch as the complainants had refused to testify after apparently having been intimidated.

b7C

It was also learned from Captain BALSWICK that HERMAN KLEBBA, Owner, Dependable Music Company, 1115 West 31st Street, Telephone Yards 7-0571, has had prior difficulty with EDDIE VOGEL, but has always refused to sign any complaint against him.

Miscellaneous

On January 30, 1958, T-4, of known reliability, who [] advised he has known EDDIE VOGEL for fifteen or twenty years and that he sees him frequently at Postl's Health Club, 188 West Randolph Street. He said VOGEL can be seen almost daily at Postl's in the afternoon, where he plays gin rummy in one of the card rooms. He said he has seen VOGEL answer a telephone call to name of EDDIE BROWN.

T-4 advised he had learned from his [] who is [] at the Belmont Hotel, Belmont and Sheridan, that VOGEL is currently frequenting at this hotel. He said it does no good for anyone to make inquiries concerning VOGEL there as the help will not admit that VOGEL stays here. He stated he knows this as he once had an appointment to see VOGEL there and upon inquiring at the desk for him, was told there was no such person there. Shortly thereafter, VOGEL appeared in the lobby to meet him after apparently having been advised by an employee.

T-4 further advised that [ten to fifteen years ago VOGEL hired away an employee of his and promptly took over 18 jukebox locations by simply telling the customer they were installing new machines. His machine was disconnected and turned against the wall and the customers were too frightened to object.

CA 7 About two or three years ago he [redacted] He believed this was done through their connections with city officials, the police department and health department who instructed them that they must change to Apex ^{machines} to avoid trouble. He advised that on talking to various of these customers, they were too afraid to talk and merely threw up their hands saying, "What can I do?". He further advised that certain officials of Forest Park were receiving $1,000 per week from the syndicate to operate jukeboxes, pinball machines, cigarette machines and slot machines.]

This informant advised that about eight to ten months ago, [a tavern [redacted]

CA [redacted] had a slot machine and jukebox in her place. He understood someone had broken into the slot machine and removed the money and that when the man from the syndicate came around to collect and found out about the condition of the slot machine, two men later came around and [redacted]

[redacted] who apparently was blamed. Thereupon, [redacted] threw the slot machine and jukebox in the street, however [redacted] shortly thereafter, presumably through syndicate influence and she was [redacted]

b7D

CA This informant also advised that VOGEL had taken over Lake County insofar as distribution of all slot machines, jukeboxes and cigarette machines. He was of the opinion that VOGEL was operating about 800 jukeboxes at present.]

CA He stated Apex's collector, name unknown, is married to the [redacted] and that they have strong control in this town. He said he had recently lost his jukebox location to [redacted]

[redacted] Illinois, where the owner is named [redacted] He advised [redacted] did not want to buy from Apex, but knowing who was back of Apex and the fashion in which they operate, he said there was nothing he could do about it.

CG 92-345

Informant commented that about three or four months ago, some of VOGEL's men tried to take over in Aurora, but ran into strenuous opposition from [redacted] Valley Music Company, 164 North Farnsworth, Aurora 6-4674, who beat up one or two of the men and had them arrested.

b6
b7C
b7D

He also stated that [redacted] Illinois, CL 3-2070, [redacted] A. H. Entertainers, had been pushed around by VOGEL's men within the past year.

On January 29, 1958, Mr. [redacted] Illinois, advised that about four or five years ago, a large Italian man about 38 to 40 years of age, driving a yellow Cadillac, came into his lunch room, informing him he was going to install a cigarette machine on the following day. At the same time he told him that he would either put it in or he would do no business with anyone else. [redacted] advised that he put up strenuous objections to this proposal and that the man left when he threatened to hit him with a meat cleaver. He said he reported this information to the Skokie Police Department and that the man had never returned.

On January 30, 1958, Mr. [redacted] Illinois, advised SA FRANKFURT that he had [redacted] a small number of pinball machines and jukeboxes in [redacted] Illinois, about five or six years ago. He said when the State of Illinois passed a law licensing pinball machines at $50.00, he discontinued their use as he could make no money. He said EDDIE VOGEL called him up and told him he had ten or fifteen machines he would like to place and asked him if he could get him the locations and that he would be taken care of. Mr. [redacted] said he knew VOGEL represented the syndicate and that he asked the Chief of Police JOE GABLE for advice. GABLE told him to back off as gracefully as he could. He then told VOGEL he could not help him and that was the end of it. He said the [redacted] had no connection with his refusal to handle VOGEL's machines, and that he had never heard anyone who had been run out of business by VOGEL.

On January 31, 1958, TONY FRAGASSI, 7807 North Linder, Morton Grove, OR 5-1911, advised he worked as a part-time driver and driver's helper for Apex Phonograph Company from approximately December, 1945, to the fall of 1948. He said he assisted in delivering jukeboxes to various locations. He said he seldom went to the Apex Offices as he was picked up at various North Side locations, whenever help was needed and consequently he was not familiar with any Apex employees. Also during this period, he worked as a free lance pinball machine service repairman but none of the machines repaired were owned by Apex to his knowledge. He said he could not remember any of the names of people who owned the machines as he knew them mostly by nicknames.

FRAGASSI said he was indicted in the summer of 1948 along with about 25 other individuals, most of whom he did not know, concerning the operation of pinball machines. He did not recall the exact charge, but stated all were discharged.

He denied he ever repaired slot machines or was a slot machine collector for EDDIE VOGEL. He admitted he knew VOGEL by sight, but had never had any dealings with him. He denied knowing of anyone dissatisfied with Apex Company and stated he was trusted and paid well by them.

b7C

On January 31, 1958, [redacted] Sail Inn, 1838 Waukegan Road, Glenview, Illinois, advised that the Apex Phonograph Company has a jukebox [redacted] and that it was there [redacted]. He said the DeLuxe Cigarette Company also has a cigarette vending machine here on which he received 1½ cents on each pack sold. He states Apex received the first $20.00 each week and that all over $20.00 is split "fifty - fifty".

CG 92-345

However, he states he does not have an opportunity to count the money collected from these machines and he must accept the amount he receives, which has been quite small. He stated, however, he had no reason to believe he was being cheated.

He advised [REDACTED] HEINE ZEUTSCHEL, 2015 Lake Avenue, Wilmette, [REDACTED] Wilmette, Phone AL 1-1140, has had some trouble with Apex in years past, but he was not acquainted with the details.

On January 23, 1958, Mr. [REDACTED] Wellers Motel, Touhy Avenue on Highway 14, Niles, Illinois, advised that the employees of the Apex Amusement Company had their Christmas Party in the Elbow Room, which is an adjunct to the motel, and approximately $500.00 was spent in connection with this party. Mr. [REDACTED] further commented that the Apex Amusement Company has installed a jukebox in the Elbow Room and that he has also permitted them to install a cigarette machine. Mr. [REDACTED] advised that he has done business with Apex over a number of years and that he knows none of the officials personally and that he has had no difficulty with them.

PETE HONAKER, Owner of the Oasis Club, located at 1745 West Howard, advised that about ten years ago, he owned the Little Club located at 4400 West Simpson, Skokie, Illinois. He said this club has since changed its name to the Charcoal Oven. He stated he operated a tavern at this location, but did not own the building and that he understood the building was owned by EDDIE VOGEL. He said he made all of his checks payable to an auditor, whose name he does not now recall, but stated he would attempt to secure this information. He stated he operated the business at this location from approximately 1937 to 1947, during which time a slot machine was in use. He said he had never had any personal dealings with VOGEL, but inasmuch as during that period considerable heat was placed on use of slot machines by police authorities, he finally refused to permit the slot machine to be used. He said it was over this incident that hard feelings were created and when he attempted to buy the building, the price was quoted so high, he was unable to purchase it.

A moving van loaded with 111 slot machines was seized yesterday by police in the 1700 block of Wallen av., where it reportedly had been parked and had gone unattended for two days.

The police haul consisted of machines of the 5-cent to 50-cent variety. The value of the machines was estimated at more than $50,000.

The serial numbers on all the machines had been filed off. Police said this was an indication that the federal gambling tax had not been paid on any of the machines.

See Syndicate Link

Police theorized that the crime syndicate had collected the machines from private clubs and other places which were giving them up because of a recent edict by Gov. Stratton that slot machines would not be allowed anywhere.

They said it was highly unlikely that a number of private clubs would get together to move and store expensive machines in a common warehouse. The moving job was typical of a crime syndicate operation.

Capt. William Balswick of the police commissioner's office was notified by a tipster of the parked truck, red in color and as clean as tho it had just been washed.

Taken to Bureau

He sent Sgt. Timothy Allman and men of the gambling squad to the vicinity. They had the truck under surveillance for some time, but when they found no one around it, and no one apparently interested in it, they opened up the van and found the machines.

The policemen then started the vehicle by "jumping" the ignition and drove the van to the rear of the detective bureau at 1121 S. State st.

Police opened the machines there and found all had been emptied of coins.

The van had the name of Dunn Brothers Storage company lettered on its sides, and also the notation: "Leased to Allied Van Lines." The new tractor attached to the van had only 500 miles recorded on its speedometer.

Late last night, police searched the Dunn company warehouse at 6542 Clark st. and found 487 paper boxes filled with lottery tickets and punch boards. Efforts were being made to learn who rented the storage space where the boxes were found.

2 KEY FIGURES IN COIN GAME RACKET VANISH

Search for Red Larner and James Rini

BY SANDY SMITH
Hyman (Red) Larner, 43, alias Thomas Waterfall, and James Rini, 39, underworld characters linked to violence in the coin game machine racket, are mysteriously missing in the collapse of their pressure campaign against frightened operators.

The way in which Larner, a former syndicate slot machine lieutenant, and Rini, a pint-sized hoodlum, slid out of the grasp of authorities has been as baffling as the way in which they conducted their "organization" drive, which Chicago police failed to expose.

State's attorney's police, eager to question the pair, are searching for them in Chicago and Florida.

Linked to Acid Raids

Both men have been linked to acid attacks and hijackings accompanying efforts of the Chicago Independent Amusement association, 165 E. Ontario st., to organize amusement machine operators. Larner is the executive secretary of the group. Rini has been identified as one of two hoodlums who used acid to attack bowling and pool table games of opposition operators.

Important association records disappeared with Larner, according to investigators of the Senate labor rackets committee. Rini vanished about the time Alex Ross, 46, identified as his companion in acid incidents, was served with a subpoena to appear before the committee.

Rini called State's Atty. Benjamin S. Adamowski's office after his pal, Ross, was seized on charges of damaging coin machines. He agreed to surrender on a malicious mischief charge. Then he vanished.

"Ivy League Type"

Larner is known as an "Ivy league type" to tavern owners. He is a former northwest side basketball star who never smoked or drank and kept himself in perfect physical condition.

He once sold flowers on street corners; the background accumulated by authorities indicates. He peddled ice cream bars and acquired a penny peanut machine route. Then he got into the slot machine racket and became known as the representative of Edward Vogel, Capone mob slot boss, in Calumet Park, Thornton, Markham and Phoenix.

He set up two homes: a $285-a-month Chicago apartment and a $50,000 Miami Shores, Fla., residence, paid for with cash. He invested in Arkansas oil wells and bought into a steel company.

Larner had a sedate and polished manner in southwest Cook county gambling circles. But a heavy-set man with a bleak look known as "Johnny Livers" was always at Larner's elbow in his headquarters in the Cross Roads tavern, 159th st. and Cicero av., Oak Forest; reporters were told.

Then, one day, Larner became executive secretary of the coin association. In the classic manner this is now a source of amazement to other officials. Sam Greenberg, 2911 Jarlath st., the president, said they "didn't know what they were doing when they elected Larner—they didn't know who he was."

Rini has a record of arrests in murder, burglary and robbery investigations and has served two prison terms. Police suspect he recently has been involved in hijacking coin machines.

Lover-Boy Quit---Don't You, Sister

BY EDAN WRIGHT

DEAR EDAN WRIGHT: If you do not publish this letter as a warning to other unsuspecting girls I will feel that the entire world is against me. I was only 19 when I came to Chicago and very attractive. I didn't have a job but I was sure that I would make my mark in the big city.

I found a job and shortly afterwards I met a man at one of the better spots in town. He was twice my age but he was youthful in looks and actions and he was generous. He persuaded me to quit my job and travel around the country with him. He gave me a lovely apartment and showered me with expensive clothes and jewelry.

He always carried a huge bankroll and he never seemed to work. I learned quite sometime after our meeting that he was in the slot machine business in a big way. I became pregnant and he treated me very well. He made arrangements for everything and when I gave birth to a daughter, he presented her with a $5,000 defense bond.

He never suggested marriage and when I mentioned it he would look very hurt. I clung to him in the hope that someday he would marry me. Then I found out that I was going to have another baby. He took the news with a stunned look. The next morning he handed me a cashier's check for $25,000 and told me that he was going away.

That was over five months ago but I am so lost that I do not care to live. I plan to place both babies with a responsible agency. Then I will take the easy way out.

DESERTED AND DISTRAUGHT.

EDAN WRIGHT

IF YOU GIVE UP your babies, you'll be doing the same thing to them that lover-boy did to you--walking out on your responsibilities. On top of that, you aim to be a quitter with your own life. Actually, what has happened is good. It will give you the chance to make a new and decent life. You're still very young and you can fulfill your dreams. Pull yourself together and start doing it.

DEAR MISS WRIGHT: My husband and I heard about a club that corresponds with people abroad by exchanging tape recordings. Could you give us any information on this.

WRITE TO the Volcependence Club, Noel, Va.

DEAR MISS WRIGHT: I am 14. My parents went on a trip recently and I asked a girl friend to spend an evening with me while they were gone. She took advantage of the opportunity and stayed until 1 a.m. I told her I was tired and wanted to go to bed. But she wouldn't take the hint.

This may happen again. If it does, what can I say to her that will bring results?

HOPPING MAD.

WHEN YOU WANT the girl to leave say this: I'm sorry but you'll have to go now. My folks told me not to stay up beyond such and such an hour and they're trusting me to follow their orders. So scram, kiddo. Tomorrow's another day and we can get together again.

DEAR MISS WRIGHT: I am a boy of 15 and I've been going out with a girl who is two-timing me. My mother says that I should quit her. What do you think?

SAD TEEN.

THERE ARE MANY girls who will treat a boy right. Why bother with one who won't?

SINCERELY, EDAN WRIGHT.

$50,000 Question: Who Left Slots in a Truck?

The jackpot question for gambling squad detectives today is: Who left $50,000 worth of slot machines in a deserted moving van?

The machines, 111 of them, were found in the 1700 block of Wallen avenue yesterday by police who were tipped off that a red truck with an interesting cargo had been parked there for two days.

The truck was listed in the name of the Dunn Brothers Storage and Warehouse Inc., 6542 N. Clark st. Detectives searched the warehouse last night and said they found 487 paper-boxes filled with lottery tickets and punch boards in a rented space.

Police said the slots in the truck probably came from private clubs, such as fraternal and veteran groups, worried by Gov. Stratton's recent promises to stamp out slots. Up to now, they have been tolerated in some clubs.

The machines probably were being turned back to their crime syndicate owners, detectives said. They discounted suggestion that the machines were on their way to a warehouse rented by the clubs on a cooperative basis against the day when the slots can safely be put back into use.

Police took the truck to the Detective Bureau, 1121 S. State st., where the slots were unloaded and stored in the basement. All of them were empty of coins.

CALL NEVADA GAMBLER IN SLOT INQUIRY

Was Load of Machines Bound for Cuba?

BY SANDY SMITH

A Nevada gambler, Charles [Chick] Ross, 54, was subpoenaed yesterday to appear before a special county grand jury investigating terrorism and racketeering by crime syndicate hoodlums in the Chicago coin-operated amusement machine industry.

Ross, a former lottery operator who acquired a $95,000 interest in a Las Vegas, Nev., gambling casino early this year, was found by state attorney's police in a third floor apartment at 7301 Sheridan rd. He was served with a summons to appear before the jury Tuesday.

Try to Trace Machines

The subpoena for Ross was issued as the grand jury, expanding an investigation of hoodlum harassment of Chicago coin game operators, reportedly began an effort to trace the ownership of 111 slot machines seized by police Feb. 25 in a parked moving van.

The state's attorney's office was investigating reports that the machines were being shipped to Florida, when a panicky driver, fearing surveillance by federal agents, abandoned the truck. The eventual destination of the slot machines, owned by the crane syndicate, was reported to be Cuba.

Valued at $50,000

The truck containing the machines, valued at more than $50,000, was found by police in the 1700 block on Wallen av. No one has claimed the machines or the truck, which bore the name of the Dunn Bros. Storage company, 6542 N. Clark st.

Before the discovery of the slot machines, police confiscated lottery equipment in a room behind a steel door in the Dunn warehouse. The storage firm owner, Joseph P. Dunn, 1714 Wallen av., refused to say how the slot machines got into his truck. He told police the lottery equipment had been stored in the warehouse by an American Sales company.

Still Seek Lerner

Ross is known to police as a pal of Hyman [Red] Lerner, 43, 3430 Lake Shore dr., a syndicate slot machine boss who has been sought without success by authorities. Lerner, executive secretary of the Chicago Independent Amusement association, 165 E. Ontario st., directed association attempts to organize amusement game operators who were intimidated by hoodlum acid attacks and other violence.

In the search for Lerner, police discovered that Ross had sold Lerner an expensive automobile Jan. 16, a few days before the coin association came under investigation by federal and county grand juries and the United States Senate's labor rackets committee.

When he accepted a grand jury subpoena, Ross admitted that he knew Lerner, but said he had not seen the slot machine boss for "a couple of years."

Linked to Caifano

Records in the Nevada gambling control board in Carson City reveal that Ross purchased 14 per cent of the Silver Slipper, a luxury casino, in January. In Las Vegas, Ross was seen frequently with Marshall Caifano, reputed syndicate representative in Nevada. Caifano has been subpoenaed to appear before the Senate committee.

Ross, who uses the names of Rosen, Rose and Glickman, has a Chicago police record going back to 1926, when he served three months in the Bridewell on a larceny conviction. He was fined $100 and costs for malicious mischief in 1933. In 1955, he was arrested by county police in an auto containing 2,400 jar game tickets and nine punch boards.

COIN GAME JURY CALLS 6 IN QUIZ OF TERRORISM

Witnesses Expected to Testify Today

A special county grand jury is expected to hear six witnesses today in an attempt to determine a possible connection between Hyman [Red] Lerner, 43, a slot machine boss, and recent crime syndicate terrorism in the coin game machine industry.

One of the witnesses will be Earl Kies, general manager of the Apex Amusement corporation, 4246 Lincoln av. Edward Vogel, crime syndicate slot machine supervisor, is secretary of the Apex firm. Before he entered the coin association, Lerner, who now is missing, was known as a protégé of Vogel in slot machine operations in southern Cook county.

Others to Face Jury

The other witnesses include Fred Tom [Juke Box] Smith, a business agent of local 134, International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, who negotiated a contract with the coin association; Michael Dale, an officer of the Commercial Phonograph Survey, 110 N. Franklin st.; Milton Raynor, former coin association attorney; and Mrs. Gertrude Ross, 520 Belmont av., an association office worker.

The mystery surrounding Lerner, executive secretary of the Chicago Independent Amusement Association, increased yesterday when authorities discovered that he used a phony name to rent a second office in the building at 163-65 E. Ontario st. which housed the association headquarters. In the building, state's attorney's police learned, Lerner maintained three separate identities in three offices only 15 feet apart on the first floor.

Uses Oil Firm's Name

Police found that Lerner, who used the name of Thomas Waterfall in the coin association, posed as Edward Jarvis last October when he rented another room and put the name of an oil firm, the Salinas Basin Development company, on the door. He used his real name, Lerner, when he made oil investments with Rue Menken, 1440 N. State pkwy., whose office adjoins the coin association headquarters.

Menken is the sixth person who has been subpoenaed to appear before the grand jury. He admitted that Lerner had made investments with him in Salinas Basin oil wells in Nebraska.

"But I don't know what he was doing with all those names and offices," said Menken. "I knew him only as Lerner and I don't think he ever did any oil business out of that Salinas office across the hall."

SIX INVOKE 5TH AMENDMENT IN COIN BOX QUIZ

Van Owner Tells of Slot Machines

Six of nine witnesses reportedly refused to testify yesterday before a Cook county grand jury investigating the Chicago Independent Amusement association, a coin game operators group. The jury also is attempting to trace the ownership of 111 slot machines seized by police Feb. 25.

The six, who reportedly invoked the 5th amendment, are:
1. Edward Mohill, secretary-treasurer of the Chicago Independent Amusement association, 165 E. Ontario st.

2. Fred Tom [Juke Box] Smith, a business agent of local 134 of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, who negotiated a union contract with the association.

3. Mrs. Gertrude Ross, 520 Belmont av., an association office worker.

4. Rue Menken, 1440 N. State pkwy., an oil speculator whose offices adjoin the association headquarters.

5. Michael Dale, owner of the Commercial Phonograph Survey company, 110 N. Franklin st.

6. Earl Kies, an official of the Recorded Music Service association, a juke box operators group.

The three who reportedly testified were Patrick Dunn Sr., owner of the Dunn Bros. Storage company, 6542 N. Clark st.; Milton Raynor, a former association attorney; and Mrs. Hattie Allegan, owner of the currency exchange at 2137 S. Laramie av., Cicero, who cashed three association checks issued to a Daniel Baker who is sought by authorities.

Dunn reportedly testified he had no knowledge of the slot machines which were found in a Dunn Bros. truck near the home of his son, Joseph, at 1714 Wallen av. No one has claimed the machines, believed by police to have been owned by the crime syndicate.

The senior Dunn reportedly told the jury that a room in the Dunn warehouse in which lottery equipment was found by raiders Feb. 25 had been leased by the American Sales company. Dunn was ordered to return to the grand jury at a future unspecified date with company records concerning the American Sales company.

Before Smith entered the jury room, he told reporters that neither he nor his union local had received any money from the association which taxed its members $1 per machine per month for a union stamp. The association has been blamed by its members for a wave of coin machine hijacking and other violence.

On March 5, 1958, Chief of Police C. H. ANDERSON, Beverly Hills Police Department, advised that MICHAEL ROMANOFF's restaurant has a favorable reputation and is considered to be one of the better restaurants in this area and has from time to time entertained movie stars and noted celebrities from all parts of the world. Chief ANDERSON stated that, to his knowledge, the restaurant is not considered to be a hoodlum hangout; however, from time to time he has received information that well-known hoodlums have been seen as guests at the restaurant. Chief ANDERSON stated that in his opinion ROMANOFF may be personally acquainted with some top hoodlums, however, there has been no indication that he is closely associated with any hoodlum element.

Chief ANDERSON also stated that FRANK SINATRA, who is a well-known singer, has a financial interest in ROMANOFF's restaurant, and it is generally known that SINATRA is well acquainted with some Eastern hoodlums; however, ANDERSON has not learned of any investment by the hoodlums into ROMANOFF's restaurant.

On April 12, 1955, MICHAEL ROMANOFF forwarded a letter to the Los Angeles Field Division which he had received at his business address in which the writer requested "two grand" because the writer advised that he had assisted ROMANOFF in escaping the consequences of being involved in a fraud case at one time. In his Application for Pardon, ROMANOFF stated he had been employed by Crocker, Inc., since 1940, a Southern California corporation which operates ROMANOFF's restaurant at 140 South Rodeo Drive, Beverly Hills, California, in the capacity of Vice-President and General Manager. This file also reflects the following criminal record on ROMANOFF:

Arrested by California Highway Patrol February 13, 1939, for drunk driving. On March 15, 1939, he was sentenced by a Beverly Hills judge to 60 days in the county jail, suspended, one year probation, fined $50, and was ordered not to drink for one year.

Arrested January 9, 1940, by Constable JAMES MARKEY on a warrant issued December 13, 1939, charging violation of probation. On January 9, 1940, he was sentenced by the same judge to serve three days in the county jail, and his probation was extended to one year. ROMANOFF had violated his probation at this time by engaging in a fist fight.

ROMANOFF has FBI Number 247989, which lists the following offenses:

Arrested Cleveland, Ohio, Police Department as MICHAEL ROMANOFF, Number 34980, on December 11, 1929, for issuing a check to defraud; plead guilty; fined $200 and paroled.

Arrested Rochester, New York, Police Department as MICHAEL ROMANOFF, February 20, 1930, for vagrancy.

Arrested Salt Lake City Police Department as R. O. ADAMS on April 10, 1931, hold for Reno, Nevada.

Arrested U. S. DH, New York, New York, as HARRY GERGUSON on April 5, 1933, "false swearing in immigration proceedings," received 90-day sentence.

Arrested Tulsa, Oklahoma, as MICHAEL ROMANOFF October 28, 1936, investigation - released.

LA 92-250

The Los Angeles Field Division files reflect also that JOHN ROSELLI, subject of Top Hoodlum Program Investigation, had advised his parole officer on February 9, 1950, that he had received a letter from MIKE ROMANOFF soliciting money for stock in ROMANOFF's new restaurant. ROSELLI said at that time that ROMANOFF was a good friend of his.

Files of Los Angeles Field Division reflect that in April, 1948, [redacted] was arrested by the Los Angeles Police Department. Her "black book" reflected that MIKE ROMANOFF, 325 North Rodeo Drive, Beverly Hills, was one of her customers.

A Los Angeles Times newspaper article that was dated March 4, 1958, was entitled "House Passes Measure Declaring ROMANOFF Is Legal U. S. Resident." This article states that the House today passed and sent to the Senate a bill involving a dilemma over the birthplace and residence status of MICHAEL ROMANOFF, noted Beverly Hills, California, restaurateur. The bill declares that ROMANOFF, also known as HARRY GERGUSON, shall be deemed to have entered the United States legally for permanent residence as of December 22, 1932.

The House Judiciary Committee said that it was necessary because the Justice Department has not been able to prove that ROMANOFF was born outside the U. S. and he has been unable to prove birth in this country.

ROMANOFF claims to have been born in New York about February 21, 1893, and to have married GLORIA LISTER, a United States citizen, on July 4, 1948.

The committee estimated ROMANOFF's annual income from his restaurant at $20,000 and his assets at about $350,000.

SA LENARD A. WOLF

TOP HOODLUM PROGRAM
ANTI-RACKETEERING

On March 24, 1958, Sergeant CHARLES FITZGERALD, Robbery Detail, Chicago Police Department, furnished the following information to SAs WILLIAM A. MEINCKE and LENARD A. WOLF:

FITZGERALD advised that he had worked with the Scotland Yard Detail of the Chicago Police Department for several years and that he had made a special study of the so called "syndicate". FITZGERALD stated that there definitely is a crime syndicate and that he believes it is connected with the crime syndicates in other large cities. He stated that the syndicate has people placed in such high places that it is almost impossible to prosecute any of them. As an example, FITZGERALD stated that at one time, the Scotland Yard Detail had a technical surveillance on JOEY GLIMCO. He stated that GLIMCO had called ANDY AIKEN who was then Chief of Detectives in the Chicago Police Department and who is now a union official. GLIMCO asked AIKEN to get him another gun as he had to throw the other gun in the river. FITZGERALD stated that at one time AIKEN had FITZGERALD and his squad walking a beat in a desolate area for six weeks for arresting some hoodlum friends of AIKEN. At one time AIKEN even tried to have FITZGERALD assigned to checking records in the B. C. I. and S.

FITZGERALD stated that he still has two civil suits pending against him for his arrest of top hoodlums. He stated that [redacted] Imperial House, has a suit against him and that GUS ALEX has a suit against him.

He stated that all the top hoodlums of the Chicago area and even some from Wisconsin and southern Illinois formerly held big meetings in a back room of the Imperial House. He stated that EDDIE VOGEL has a suit against him for an arrest in 1953. FITZGERALD stated that he and his squad had observed VOGEL leave his residence one block south of Montrose on Marine Drive with a bundle wrapped in a newspaper under his arm. When VOGEL saw the squad, he turned and ran back towards his residence. FITZGERALD caught VOGEL in the lobby trying to catch an elevator. FITZGERALD stated that the newspaper bundle contained $5,500 in ten's and twenty's and that he had seventeen $100.00 bills in his pocket. FITZGERALD believes that VOGEL owns the building he resides in. He stated that several other hoodlums reside in the building and that the building management is very unco-operative.

FITZGERALD stated that he does not believe the syndicate has a "top man" as it would be too easy for the man next in line to have the top man killed and for him to take over. FITZGERALD believes rather that the syndicate is controlled by a group of top hoodlums and that any important decision is made by the group with minor problems being handled by the individuals handling the territory in which the minor problem arises.

FITZGERALD advised that he made a special study of the way the syndicate has taken over numerous businesses by the filing of involuntary bankruptcy proceedings. FITZGERALD stated that one particular case involved a company which operated the ice making business for the hockey games at the Chicago Stadium. The company operating this business hired an auditor who turned out to be a syndicate member. This auditor spotted the weaknesses of the company and determined who the creditors were. Before the owners knew what was happening, they had lost the business.

FITZGERALD stated that the Chicago area hoodlums reportedly have made heavy inroads on gambling in the Nevada area.

FITZGERALD advised that he would dig out records which he had at home pertaining to the syndicate which he would furnish to the interviewing agents.

FITZGERALD advised that in his opinion, the syndicate is organized around the Italian American Union.

FITZGERALD advised that JACK CERONE has a syndicate district on the west side and that JOE GAGLIANO and WILLIE MESSINA are connected with CERONE.

FITZGERALD advised that GUS ALEX reportedly has the Loop and south side districts which he took over on JAKE GUZIK's death.

FITZGERALD believes that the syndicate is not only primarily concerned with gambling but it is concerned with any lucrative business whether it is legal, semi-legal, or illegal.

FITZGERALD suggested that TOM CONNOLLY be interviewed. CONNOLLY was the former partner of WILLIAM DRURY. CONNOLLY and DRURY were former Police Officers who were discharged for failure to sign immunity waivers before the Grand Jury investigating the RAGEN killing.

DRURY was shot and killed in gangland fashion several years ago. FITZGERALD stated that DRURY, after his discharge from the Police Department, had surveilled and continually hounded ROCCO FISCHETTI and that this was probably the reason for DRURY's murder.

Ticken Lists Chic

A "who's who of hoodlums" in Chicago has been drawn up by U.S. Atty. Robert Ticken—with a view toward making trouble for them.

The listing is in line with the federal government's recently announced plan to put 100 of the country's top gangsters in prison.

Ticken's investigation shows that Chicago racketeers operate with the efficiency of a successful corporation, The Sun-Times learned.

There are, in effect, a president, a board of directors and vice presidents in command of various criminal enterprises.

Like Military Setup

In Ticken's files is an organizational chart, similar to that of a military table of organization, showing the hoodlum setup.

Chicago police officials remarked, inquiringly, that the chart shows no connection of the mobsters with so-called legitimate business.

But the hoodlums are known to own taverns, night clubs, restaurants, hotels, breweries, liquor distribution agencies, insurance firms, employment agencies, finance companies and large real estate holdings.

The top man is listed as Anthony J. (Tony) Accardo, 32, a scowling, loud-mouthed thug who never has served a day in prison.

Accardo, Ricca Bosses

The "voice of experience" behind him is listed on the chart as aging, obsequious Paul (The Waiter) Ricca, now up for income tax prosecution and possible deportation.

The table of organization goes on to list the hoodlums in charge of such enterprises as handbooks, vice, the policy racket, pinball machines, dice, roulette and the like.

Veteran police officials agreed with classifications of Accardo and Ricca as the big bosses, with unlimited disciplinary and enforcement power.

But they expressed doubts over some of the lower ratings.

A notable omission from the "who's who" is Murray (The Camel) Humphreys, the only leading Chicago gangster who brags of having gone through college.

Some Doubt Expressed

Humphreys long has been in charge of the mob's labor rackets, and branched out into employment agencies in recent years.

Placed too low in an echelon by Ticken, according to the police officials, was Philip (Milwaukee Phil) Alderisio, adviser to Accardo.

Ticken rated elderly James DeGeorge only one notch below Accardo and Ricca, which caused some expressions of doubt in police circles.

DeGeorge received his last taste of the headlines in 1933, and some officials said his rating probably should be exchanged with that of "Milwaukee Phil."

The chart, which has been forwarded to the Justice Department in Washington, traces connecting links between the Chicago mobsters and racketeers in other cities.

A Cleveland syndicate head by Gaetano Ricci, also known as Tony Goebbel, seem to be an offshoot of the Accardo-Ricca mob, Ticken reported.

ANTHONY ACCARDO

Gambling is indicated as the most extensive criminal endeavor of the Chicago syndicate—also called "the outfit" or "the mob" or "the army and navy."

Fifty hoodlum names are on the section of the chart devoted to handbooks, policy, slot machines and the like.

Other major divisions of criminal activity are charted as "fence" (meaning disposal of stolen goods), labor, prostitution and narcotics.

Ticken identified the criminal organization's bosses in Chicago as:

REWRITE TAX, TWO ARE TOLD

The U.S. Tax Court in Washington has ordered Chicago hoodlum Anthony J. (Tony) Accardo and an associate, Frank LaPorte, to rewrite their 1948-49 income tax returns.

The court held Tuesday that they understated their earnings from gambling during the years. It ordered them to refigure their tax returns.

However, the court said that government tax claims against the pair for the two years, totaling $152,305, were excessive. The court said the government, too, must do some refiguring.

Ross Prio, with powerful political connections, is described by the U.S. attorney as overseer of handbooks, with the North Side as his special domain.

The names of Pierce and Alex, two of the most intelligent of all the mobsters, bob up again in the handbook command.

NAB TWO MEN, EQUIPMENT TO RUN LOTTERY

Nevada Gambler and Pal Held

A large quantity of lottery equipment was confiscated by police yesterday in the auto of one of two Chicago gamblers arrested for a traffic violation in the 3700 block in Montrose av.

Those arrested are Charles [Chick] Ross, 54, of 6559 N. Rockwell st., part owner of a Nevada casino, and Carmen Bastone, 27, of 3821 N. Sayre av., employe of Sheridan Sales company, lottery equipment firm owned by Ross.

Includes Punch Boards

The lottery equipment seized in Bastone's auto consisted of punch boards, fish bowl tickets, and a match book type of lottery tickets. Police said it could bring in as much as $100,000 if it were put into use.

Ross and Bastone, driving in separate autos, were halted by Detectives McEwing, Burroughs and Richard Pluta, who are assigned to Kyran Phelan, deputy commissioner of police.

The detectives had trailed Ross and Bastone from Bastone's home. The detectives had kept Bastone's home under surveillance after the two were linked with 400 cartons of lottery tickets found in the Dunn Brothers Storage company, 6542 N. Clark st.

Ross drove up to Bastone's home and both drove away in their autos, with the policemen trailing.

Driver Makes Mistake

Bastone, driving north in Pulaski rd., made a right turn into Montrose av., running an amber light. The policemen said Ross went thru a red light in following Bastone. The policemen halted them three blocks away.

The investigation started when police found 111 slot machines on Feb. 25 in a moving van of the Dunn Brothers company near the home of Joseph P. Dunn, 1714 Wallen av., a company official.

Police Capt. William A. Balswick said that before the truck was seized police had been informed that the slot machines were stored in a room in the warehouse. When detectives entered the room they found the 400 cartons of lottery tickets which bore tags showing that they were shipped to Ross' lottery firm from Kansas City, Mo.

Arrested in 1955

The arrest, police said, was a virtual duplicate of the seizure of the two men Nov. 10, 1955, by sheriff's police in an auto containing lottery equipment. Ross has a police record dating to 1926 when he served three months in the Bridewell for larceny.

Ross appeared before the county grand jury in connection with the seizure of the slot machines and reportedly invoked the 5th amendment. He owns a 14 per cent interest in the Silver Slipper, Las Vegas, Nev., gambling casino.

Seize $100,000 Gambling Tickets

Charles (Chick) Ross is quizzed at Detective Bureau.

Lottery and fishbowl gambling tickets with face value of $100,000 were found by police who closed in on two men Saturday after several days' surveillance.

The opportunity to make arrests came, police said, when Carmen Bastone, 26, of 3821 N. Sayre, ran a red light at Pulaski and Montrose.

Behind him in a second car was Charles (Chick) Ross, 53, of 6559 N. Rockwell, reputed part owner of a Las Vegas (Nev.) gambling casino. He is under subpoena for appearance before the Senate Rackets Investigating Committee. Ross also was arrested.

Dets. Richard Pluta and McEwing Burrows found lottery and other gambling equipment in the trunk of Bastone's car.

Bastone and Ross were held for questioning.

Police said they began their investigation of Ross and Bastone after a parked truck bearing the name of Dunn Brothers Storage, 6542 N. Clark, was found loaded with 111 slot machines Feb. 25 in the 1700 block of Wallen.

Seeking to trace ownership of the cargo, police learned at the warehouse that gambling equipment was stored in a section rented by Sheridan Sales Co. The company is listed at Ross's address.

Trailed From House

Police then decided to keep Ross, alias Sam Glickman, under surveillance. Dets. Pluta and Burrows trailed Ross and Bastone from Bastone's home Saturday.

A spokesman at the warehouse said the firm had no control over articles stored by persons renting space.

In November, 1955, sheriff's police said they found punchboards, fishbowl games and lottery tickets in Bastone's car when he was stopped for speeding in River Forest. Charges against Bastone were not pressed, however.

Trying to get information about who owns the slot machines in the basement at police headquarters is like riding the merry-go-round at Riverview on opening day.

You just keep going 'round and 'round—and never get ~~any~~ where.

Police claim they have been unable to find the owners of the 111 slots they found recently. In fact, they even profess that they have been unable to contact the city corporation counsel, John C. Melaniphy, to get permission to destroy them.

And a reporter for THE CHICAGO AMERICAN has been denied permission to even see the machines.

TRACED TO CLUB

However, THE CHICAGO AMERICAN has learned—with out the cooperation of the police—the numbers of at least two of the machines allegedly held by police and traced them to a private club called the Dania Club, 1657 N. Kedzie av.

THE AMERICAN, in making its own investigation, apparently blazed a trail for the police department since the reporter found that the police had not been to the Dania Club to question the owners.

FOUND ON TRUCK

The 111 machines held by police are of the type known as one-armed bandits. They were seized Feb. 25 on a truck belonging to Dunn Bros. Storage Warehouses, Inc.

The truck was parked in front of the home of Joseph Dunn, son of the firm's owner, at 1714 Wallen and officials of the company have professed themselves amazed and dumbfounded, and say they are wholly unable to account for the presence of the slots in their truck.

It must have been taken without their permission, they say, although the truck was never reported stolen.

been around asking about the slots.

Two other machines were traced by their numbers to the Mills Bell-O-Matic Co., 4630 Fullerton av., manufacturers of various kinds of coin-vending machines.

Ray Woodrick, the manager, said that since 1950 no one-armed bandits had been made by Mills in Chicago. In that year, he said, the production was transferred to Reno, Nev.

Woodrick had no record of one of the numbers, but said the file on the other had been taken by Arthur G. Kaplan, an assistant counsel of the Senate Rackets Investigating Subcommittee under Sen. McClellan.

Woodrick said there had been no calls from police on ownership of the machines.

The furor over slot machines resulted from a recent discussion between Gov. Stratton and State's Attorney Adamowski, in which they decreed that gambling devices should be rooted out even from private clubs.

ISSUES WARNING

Stratton warned he would send state troopers on raids if local or county authorities failed to act.

A widely held theory concerning the mysterious 111 machines is that they were collected from various clubs throughout northern Illinois and were being taken to a hiding place.

How they got on the Dunn truck remains an impenetrable enigma.

Another enigma is why the thorough investigation being conducted by Capt. Balswick has so far turned up so little.

One large-scale operator of slots had this to say:

"These machines are worth $385 new. They're in terrific demand. A second-hand slot machine can bring $250, with plenty of eager bidders.

"In the past, some confiscated slot machines have found their way back to some club."

THERE THEY STAND

Meanwhile, the 111 one-armed bandits stand in the basement of police headquarters, while the investigation roars ahead, and while Capt. Balswick tracks down the elusive corporation counsel for advice on whether he can destroy them.

And if the theory that private owners of the slots were seeking a place of concealment is true, then they seem to have found in the basement of the police building the ideal spot.

asked Melaniphy yet because he is "a hard man to find."

NO U.S. STAMPS

None of the machines had federal gambling stamps attached. The manufacturer's serial numbers have been obliterated on some, but the numbers are still on other machines, providing a clue to who bought them.

When a machine is sold, a report on the purchaser, together with the number of the machine, is filed with the Internal Revenue Service and with the office of the Illinois attorney general.

Through other sources, the numbers of two of the machines in police possession were learned. They were traced back to the Auto-Bell Novelty Co., 29 W. Kinzie st.

SHOWS RECORDS

Zeke Wolf, manager of the firm, had no hesitation about producing records of the two machines. They had been repaired in November of 1950 and January of 1951, he said.

He produced receipts showing they had been sent, after repair, to the Dania Club. Wolf said no policeman had been around asking about the machines.

The manager of the Dania Club, Paul Romer, was astonished to learn that his name appeared on receipts for the two machines. Romer said:

"We never had any machines repaired by Auto-Bell."

He recalled that in late 1950 or early 1951, "two men with hoods" followed an iceman into the club and when they left, took with them five of the Dania Club's slot machines.

Romer said no police had

The truck was returned to the Dunn Co. Wednesday after the firm obtained a writ of replevin.

COPS SHUT DOOR

Capt. William Balswick, aide to Commissioner O'Connor and also head of the gambling detail, told THE AMERICAN:

"I can't let you see the slot machines. We are making a thorough investigation of the whole thing, and we don't want anything to happen that might hamper our investigation.

"I don't know what all the fuss is about, anyhow.

"I'm going to ask Melaniphy (Corporation counsel) when I can destroy them. It won't be long before they're out of circulation."

Balswick said he hadn't

[redacted] advised on 4/8 and 16/58, that he had seen EDDIE VOGEL on 4/15/58, in a strip joint tavern in the Mark Twain Hotel, at which time VOGEL told him to be very careful in his actions and that he should be careful to see that he was not followed and cautioned him to not make phone calls from his hotel.

[redacted] advised that VOGEL is the power behind the CIAA and as such controls all pin ball machines, slot machines and juke boxes. He stated that he is pulling the strings in the CIAA and that HYMAN LARNER and SAM GREENBERG officials of the CIAA are mere tools of VOGEL.

[redacted] informed that he is being paid by the CIAA at the rate of $150 per week and that he has been employed by them for the past [redacted]. During this period he stated he has hijacked pin ball and coin operated machines, telling the tavern operator he was from the repair shop and would bring another machine on the following day. He said he has smashed about 20 machines with an ax and estimated that over a six months period he spilled acid on approximately 300 or 400 others. According to [redacted] he primarily received his orders from LARNER, however, when LARNER was on vacation he received them from VOGEL. [redacted] listed some of the following places as being particularly hard hit by acid:

[redacted] claims hit approximately [redacted] particularly at [redacted] located on [redacted] near a [redacted]. He said this place was hit particularly hard.

According to [redacted] a red headed clerk in the office of the CIAA received complaints from coin machine operator who had joined the CIAA complaining of operators who had refused to join and that a list of those operators refusing to purchase CIAA stickers were furnished to [redacted] and his [redacted] for the purpose of spilling acid on them. He said he and [redacted] would call in every day and receive the names and addresses of those spots not complying for the purpose of damaging their machines.

According to [redacted] the following individuals operate on the south side for the CIAA in connection with acid spilling and are the so called [redacted] HYMAN LARNER and EDDIE VOGEL: POOPY MAENZA, Aka GLENDO (ph.); [redacted] FRANK MUSTERI, now deceased; [redacted] (ph.). According to [redacted] GUS ALEX, a top hoodlum, is a very close associate of EDWARD VOGEL.

Also according to [] VOGEL and the syndicate have plans to take over all laundrettes in the City of Chicago. He said their plans have been delayed due to the bad publicity in connection with the spilling of acid on coin operated machines. He is of the opinion they will make efforts to muscle into the laundretts business as soon as they feel the opportunity is right.

[] further remarked that WILLIE "POTATOES" DARDANO is a so called lieutenant of EDUARD VOGEL and has charge of slot machines and handbooks in the county and is considered a big man.

JUDGE'S RULE ON SEARCH HIT BY ADAMOWSKI

Judge Fred Slater of South State Street court was criticized yesterday by State's Atty. Benjamin S. Adamowski for freeing two gamblers charged with possessing gambling equipment. An investigation was ordered by Adamowski to see if the freed defendants could be indicted on similar charges.

Those freed were Charles [Chick] Ross, 53, of 7301 Sheridan rd., part owner of a Nevada gambling casino, and Carmen Bastone, 26, of 3821 N. Sayre av., an employe of Sheridan Sales company, lottery equipment firm owned by Ross. Judge Slater fined the two $1 and $1 costs for running a red light and then suspended the fines.

Judge Slater ruled that policemen cannot search closed compartments of an auto even tho the motorist is arrested for a traffic violation. Ross and Bastone, driving separate autos, were arrested April 19 for running the light at Pulaske road and Montrose avenue. The gaming equipment, found in the trunk of Bastone's car, consisted of punch boards and fish bowl tickets, a type of lottery ticket.

All informants mentioned herein are of known reliability unless otherwise indicated.

A. PERSONAL HISTORY AND BACKGROUND

Subject's Residence

On April 29 and April 30, 1958, Mr. [redacted] 320 Oakdale Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, advised VOGEL continues to reside at this address. He said VOGEL has removed his name from the roster in the building lobby. He commented that VOGEL never answers the door of his apartment and that it is always answered by either a full-time white maid named FRIEDA or a full-time colored cook, name unknown. In addition, he advised that he has seen a woman occupying VOGEL's apartment who passes for his wife and described her as follows: 45-50 years; tinted brown hair; 5'2"-5'3"; 125 pounds. (phone for Vogel 413-2226)

Mr. [redacted] advised he has observed VOGEL's movements and noticed he is most wary when leaving the apartment building and that he sometimes leaves by a chauffeur driven automobile waiting in the alley, at which time their exit is either through the alley or by the side drive next to the apartment building. He said he has no set pattern for departure but that generally he is picked up by a tall chauffeur about 55 years of age who has a very dark beard. He commented that the chauffeur usually carries a rather heavy brown leather case when entering or leaving the building. He had no idea as to the contents of this case.

Automobiles and License Numbers

On March 26, 1958, T-1 advised that GUS ALEX, on whom a top hoodlum case has been opened, was picked up at his residence by a chauffeur he knows only as "BUTCH" whom he says regularly picks up ALEX once or twice a week. He described "BUTCH" as about 55, tall and always seems to need a shave. Informant advised that "BUTCH" was driving a 1958 Cadillac with 1958 Illinois license #499-485.

The records of the Department of Motor Vehicles, Springfield, Illinois, reflect that this car is registered to the U. S. Auto Leasing Company, 4011 West Harrison Street, Chicago, Illinois.

The records of Dun and Bradstreet, as checked by [redacted] on April 8, 1958 at the request of Investigative Clerk [redacted] reflect that the U. S. Auto Leasing Company, 4011 West Harrison Street, [redacted] being the father of the other two. The indices of this office do not reflect any reference which could be identified to the [redacted]

On April 10, 1958, [redacted] U. S. Auto Leasing Company, was contacted by SA WILLIAM F. ROEMER, Jr. He advised that [redacted] and that any business with them must be conducted through [redacted]

[redacted] advised through [redacted] that the above mentioned automobile is a brand new 1958 Cadillac which was purchased last month listing for $7000 and was almost immediately leased to the Deluxe Cigarette Company, 4246 North Lincoln Avenue, Chicago, Illinois. [redacted] said that a friend of his, one [redacted] who [redacted] with a person he believed to be EDWIN VOGEL, mentioned the Deluxe Company to [redacted] and shortly thereafter JULIUS ZIMMEROFF, an officer of that company, contacted [redacted] to determine their rates, etc.

[redacted] made the application for a lease available and it was determined that ZIMMEROFF stated telephonically that NATHAN LADON, 5011 South Cornell, an employee of De Luxe, would be the principal driver of said car but that it was to be used principally as a company car. The contract is to run for 15 months and the car is to be brought back to U. S. Auto each 2000 miles for servicing. Deluxe obtained the car on March 18, 1958 and they have not yet returned it for servicing as of this date and [redacted] has no idea when it will be returned. Deluxe pays $245 per month for the use of the car.

It is to be noted that NATHAN LADON, also known as EUTON LADON, has been a chauffeur for EDWARD VOGEL and it is believed that he chauffeurs interchangeably for VOGEL and GUS ALKX.

Miscellaneous

On April 10, 1958, T-2 advised the following correspondence was sent to EDWARD VOGEL during the first week of April, 1958, from persons listed as follows:

MILLIE B. OPPENHEIMER, Inc.
1300 North State Street

HAROLD A. STOUT, President
First Commercial Bank

H. Hantz & Company
72 Wall Street, New York, New York
Addressed as EDWARD and [redacted] VOGEL,
Account #XN 9235

Slot Machines

On April 2, 1958, Mr. [REDACTED], Dania Club, 1651 North Kedzie Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, advised that this club has been operating for approximately 97 years and is social in nature and caters primarily to Danish people. He recalled that the club had purchased two slot machines in about January, 1952 and that about six months thereafter, in June, these machines were hijacked from the club. He stated two armed men had held up the iceman who was then making a delivery for the Jefferson Ice Company, and put the iceman and the club janitor into a cloak room and locked the door. He said this occurred at about 9:30 a.m. and that thereafter three slot machines were removed from the club. He said the club is not operating slot machines at the present time. He commented the janitor who was locked in the cloak room was VICTOR FRANTSEN who is now deceased. He said he did not know the name of the iceman. He also commented that this matter was not reported to the police as it was illegal to have slot machines in the first place, however he did mention the club had purchased appropriate government stamps.

On May 6, 1958, the storage records of Dunn's Warehouse were reviewed by SA FRANKFURT and it was determined that none of these records pertained to any shipment of slot machines or did any of the records contain files in the name of EDWARD VOGEL or any of his aliases.

T-5, who has not furnished sufficient information to be considered reliable, was interviewed by SAs [redacted] and PAUL B. FRANKFURT on April 8, 1958. This source learned that EDWARD VOGEL had issued instructions to sabotage the coin operated machines [redacted] inasmuch as he had refused to come into the CIAA. Source advised that as a result a number [redacted] machines were damaged before he submitted and joined the CIAA.

The above source advised he had learned that HYMAN LARNER is back in town, and said he is driving a 1957 Oldsmobile convertible, cream body with black top, bearing Wisconsin plates. LARNER is further reported to occasionally visit Ricketts Restaurant on California and Division Streets on Sunday mornings, where he consults with his attorneys BIBBER and BROOKIN. He further advised that LARNER is VOGEL's right hand man in the operation of VOGEL's slot machines in southwest Cook County and pulls the strings for VOGEL as Secretary of the CIAA.

Source further stated that a meeting was held in December, 1957, attended by EDWARD VOGEL, HYMAN LARNER, JAMES RINI, ALEX ROSS and TONY "POOPY" GALENDO (phonetic) and others, at which time it was decided the strategy to be used in dealing with operators who refused to come into the CIAA. Source stated that there were a number of operators who had refused to come in to the CIAA and that to coerce them LARNER arranged for the obtaining of the acid which was later used to spill on the coin operated machines of those operators not members of the CIAA.

This source was able to learn that in the damaging of the machines of non members of the CIAA, that some machines belonging to CHARLES "CHUCK" ENGLISH, a syndicate figure, were inadvertently damaged because they did not have the union sticker. According to information available to this source, this came about as a result of EDDIE VOGEL's instructions that all machines without stickers were subject to being hit. (Apparently, ENGLISH, a syndicate member, did not feel that he needed a sticker and exposed his machines to damage.) This action infuriated ENGLISH and he physically attacked ALEX ROSS with a rubber hose and severely beat him. ALEX in turn complained to WILLIE "POTATOES" DADDANO who in turn called EDDIE VOGEL (who was in the hospital at the time) to arbitrate in the matter.

This source learned that ALEX ROSS and JAMES RINI were identified as the acid throwers and that soon after, ROSS was apprehended, but that RINI had avoided arrest and was able to get in touch with VOGEL who immediately called him to the Trade Winds where VOGEL gave him $1,000 in cash and told him to get out of town. Source understood RINI went to Pasadena, California and stayed at the Clark Motel.

Source stated VOGEL hangs out at the Trade Winds on Rush Street, Valentines in the Berkshire-Devonshire Hotel, and the Crossroads, 159th and Cicero. LARNER is presently hanging out at the Turf Club in Cicero, The Rainbow in Cicero and occasionally meets at Leonards located at 3819 North Broadway, which is a hoodlum meeting place.

This source related that the syndicate will finance the liquor license of anyone desiring to go into the tavern business providing that individual will permit syndicate controlled machines to be installed in the tavern. The owner's percentage normally paid to him is applied toward his license loan until paid.

On April 14, 1958 SAM GREENBERG, 2911 West Jariath, Chicago, Illinois, who is President of the CIAA, was contacted by SAs [redacted] and FRANKFURT. He refused to answer any questions or discuss any matter in connection with the CIAA without the presence of his attorney, [redacted]. Accordingly, no further attempt was made to interview him under these circumstances.

On April 15, 1958, T-5 advised he had observed VOGEL, on April 14, 1958, in the strip joint in the Mark Twain Hotel, Clark and Division, where VOGEL was talking to one [redacted]. He stated that [redacted] the tavern Talk of the Town as well as the strip joint in the Mark Twain Hotel. According to the informant, VOGEL had told him he must be very careful to watch his rear view mirror while driving to avoid surveillance, and when drinking in taverns to refrain from discussing slot machines. This informant was able to learn that since the CIAA began a constant campaign was carried on against the coin machine operators refusing to join. Those who refused to pay their monthly dues had their machines hijacked, and informant estimated that approximately 50 such machines were taken from various operators, over 20 damaged by axes and 50 or more were damaged by acid spilling.

On April 22, 1958, SA [redacted] interviewed [redacted] in his automobile parked at Roosevelt and Michigan. He stated that he is currently residing at [redacted] Rel-1250, or at [redacted]

He stated he started in the coin machine business in 1949 and was the operator of [redacted]

He advised that in [redacted] he began having [redacted] which resulted in newspaper notoriety in which [redacted] stated publicly that he was making approximately $35,000 per year in his coin machine business and was one of the [redacted] in the city of Chicago. He felt this notoriety contributed towards singling him out for damage done to his business through hijacking of machines and damage by acid spilling.

Mr. [redacted] advised that about two years ago when the CIAA was being formed he attended some of the meetings at the Congress Hotel. These meetings were presided over by SAM GREENBERG who later became President. At none of the meetings he attended did he observe THOMAS WATERFALL or EDWARD VOGEL. He advised he could see no benefit from joining the CIAA and for this reason decided not to become a member and pay the required dues of $1.00 per month per machine.

He stated that due to [redacted] his line of credit with coin machine suppliers was greatly curtailed and when he attempted to [redacted] from the [redacted] at the price of $1,000 each he was unable to negotiate this sale on his [redacted] but formed the [redacted] [redacted] stated that subsequently [redacted] of these machines were hijacked from the following locations:

located near police station on about Albany, at about the same dates.

He said he reported the hijacking of the one on [redacted] but he never got any of the machines back. He stated he does not know who did this hijacking but assumes that the CIAA had something to do with it.

[redacted] stated that he has had coin machines damaged by acid at the following locations:

He also stated he had a rifle machine at [redacted] which was thrown out of the location by some unknown individual who displayed to the woman proprietor a letter stating he had bought the route. [redacted] stated in this case the unknown individual broke into the cash drawer of his machine, divided the money with the proprietor, and put another machine in the location. [redacted] stated the lady who operated the location at 1556 North Wells Street, was only able to describe the unknown man as heavy set. He stated the lady who operated the location at 8305 Hurley Street said it was ROSS who was one of the acid spillers in her place after she had seen a picture of ALEX ROSS on television.

[redacted] attributed the decline of his coin machine route from a peak of [redacted] of about [redacted] at the present time to both the harassment he has received and because of his [redacted]. He stated that from [redacted] for [redacted] because he was unable [redacted] a week [redacted]. He stated during this period of time he had several [redacted] caring for [redacted] whom he did not trust completely. He further attributed his decline in business to the fact that other operators were coming out with "bumper pool" tables which he did not think were going to go over and, therefore, he was six months late in getting this type of equipment started in his locations, resulting in his loss of a number of stops to other operators.

On April 23, 1958, [redacted] was interviewed by SAs [redacted] and PAUL B. FRANKFURT in an automobile parked at Cermak Road and Indiana Avenue. [redacted] confirmed information previously furnished on April 22, 1958. In addition, he advised he had purchased used coin machines in the operation of his business from the following out-of-state firms:

Cleveland Coin Machine Exchange, 2025 Prospect, Cleveland, Ohio (Claims he purchased about $38,000 worth of shuffle alloys under the name [redacted] during the latter part of 1954 and early 1955.)

Sheldon Sales, 881 Main Street, Buffalo, New York (Claims to have bought about $16,000 worth of shuffle alloys during later part of 1954 and early 1955.)

Redd Distributing Company, Alston, Massachusetts (Claims to have bought approximately $1,000 worth of shuffle alloys during later 1954 and early 1955.

Biletta Distributing Company, Newark, New York (Claims to have bought about $5,000 worth of equipment during later 1954 and early 1955.)

[redacted] also stated he purchased a small amount of equipment from an operator named [redacted] who lives some place in the east, but he was unable to recall his exact location.

T-6 stated that about September or October, 1956 he received a [redacted] WATERFALL (HYMAN LARNER) and a Mr. BROWN at Charles Postl's Health Club, 188 West Randolph Street. He stated that he [redacted]

[redacted] WATERFALL and BROWN in an office adjacent to the gymnasium. They told him that they understood he had a lot of equipment out and he wasn't a member of the CIAA and they wanted him to become one. T-6 stated they wanted him to buy $600 worth of union labels at a cost of $1.00 per machine per month, payable three months in advance, to apply to each machine. T-6 stated he did not agree to do this because at that time he was unable to write a check for $600. He stated he did buy 20 union labels but payment was not made at this time. He said that [redacted] he went to the CIAA office on Ontario Street and gave a check for $60.00 to WATERFALL and a few days later he got the labels from a lady in the CIAA office whom he only knows by the first name [redacted] Source stated that the interview with BROWN and WATERFALL lasted approximately one-half hour and during this time no threats were made to him and no money was given to Brown and WATERFALL.

Subsequently a group of photographs was shown to this source and he identified the picture of EDWARD VOGEL as the Mr. BROWN [redacted] with WATERFALL.

It is to be noted that ALEX ROSS, 2340 West Addison Street, Chicago, Illinois, was arrested with JAMES RINI, 1456 North Orleans Street, Chicago, Illinois, in February, 1958 in connection with the spilling of acid on pin ball machines.

On May 1, 1958, T-5 advised that ALEX ROSS and JAMES RINI were paid $50 by SAM GREENBERG, President of the CIAA, and were told there would be no more salary until after their case is settled and at such time as their services could again be utilized. According to this source, ROSS was highly incensed against this action but was told by GREENBERG that he was taking orders like everyone else and there was nothing he could do. According to source, there was no doubt but that VOGEL had issued orders to discontinue the services of ROSS and RINI.

Accordingly, ALEX ROSS was located through [redacted] Chicago, Illinois, second floor, and she commented that ROSS had been in trouble all of his adult life.

On May 2, 1958, ROSS was interviewed by SAs [redacted] and FRANKFURT in a Bureau automobile parked at approximately 1400 West Diversey, Chicago, Illinois. ROSS denied knowing the whereabouts of HYMAN LARNER and stated that he had not seen him since early February. He advised he was not working at present and declined to discuss his association or employment with the CIAA, or any of the people connected with it. He was evasive in answering all direct questions. He admitted he had been in trouble all of his life, spending over 15 years in the penitentiary for robbery and counterfeiting. He admitted, however, that he was a con man and that his specialty was selling whiskey and other hard-to-get merchandise which he did not have and collecting the money before delivery and skipping immediately after the payment.

It is to be noted that FRANK ELDORADO, 6107 South Knox, Chicago, Illinois, was arrested approximately one year ago with ALEX ROSS and JAMES RINI and FRANK MUSTERI, at which time they were picked up in connection with the hijacking of a pin ball machine.

On March 26, 1958, FRANK ELDONADO, 6107 South Knox, Chicago, Illinois, was interviewed by SAs [REDACTED] and FRANKFURT. ELDONADO advised he is presently working as a bartender for Milano's Restaurant at State and Division Streets. He admitted being arrested with ROSS, RINI and MUSTERI about a year previous but stated he had never met RINI or ROSS before the day he was picked up and that his connection in this group was MUSTERI who has since been killed. He declined to answer any questions in connection with the hijacking of the pin ball machine and stated he did not know who gave the orders to have it hijacked, nor did he know where it was to be delivered. He denied knowing HYMAN LAMNER or any individuals connected with the CIAA. He commented however that his attorneys were BIBBER and BRODKIN.

Miscellaneous

On March 27, 1958, SAM BALAMANTI, owner of the Top Hat Lounge, 3223 North Cicero Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, who also operates a restaurant at telephone West Chicago 1964, located two miles east of Geneva, Illinois and four miles west of Route 59 on Route 30, was interviewed by SAs KUMPPP and FRANKFURT. BALAMANTI stated that in 1953 he operated the Farm Club at Golf Road and Milwaukee Avenues, where he ran a gambling joint consisting of poker games. He said he operated at this location and one other place with his partner, JOHNNY GOLDEN, for approximately 18 months. He refused to mention names but stated he had been approached by muscle men from the syndicate stating that there was not enough room for him and them in the county together. It was suggested that he work for the syndicate on a salary basis and he refused. He stated that his partner was subsequently shot and killed at Madison and Halsted Streets but that he still refused to close his place. Thereafter, while driving home one evening, he stated his car was riddled with bullets and he narrowly escaped with his life. As the result of this incident he ceased his gambling operations and has had no connections with the syndicate since that time. He denied ever meeting EDWARD VOGEL or ever performing work or favors for him. He denied knowing anything concerning slot machines being removed from the Tam-O-Shanter Country Club and consistently stated he was on the wrong side and had always opposed the mob. He refused to talk in terms of names, dates and places because of fear for his life. He admitted knowing "POTATOES" (WILLIAM DADDANO) and "NIGGER JOE" (JOE AMATO) as muscle men but refused to comment as to whether they had anything to do with closing up his gambling operations.

BALAMANTI further commented that he had been approached to install slot machines in his place of business but he refused stating it was too close to the Sheriff's Office and that many of his customers were Court officials. He said he had a juke box in his place which was serviced by Apex Amusement Company and that the serviceman, DICK, had questioned him several times concerning the possibility of installing slot machines.

On March 24, 1958, Sergeant CHARLES FITZGERALD, Robbery Detail, Chicago Police Department, furnished the following information to SAs WILLIAM A. MEINCKE and LEONARD A. WOLF. He stated that EDDIE VOGEL has a suit against him for an arrest in 1953. FITZGERALD stated that he and his squad had observed VOGEL leave his residence one block south of Montrose on Marine Drive with a bundle wrapped in a newspaper under his arm. When VOGEL saw the squad, he turned and ran back towards his residence. FITZGERALD caught VOGEL in the lobby trying to catch an elevator. FITZGERALD stated that the newspaper bundle contained $5,500 in ten's and twenty's and that he had seventeen $100.00 bills in his pocket. FITZGERALD believes that VOGEL owns the building he resides in. He stated that several other hoodlums reside in the building and that the building management is very uncooperative.

OK
FITZGERALD stated that he does not believe the syndicate has a "top man" as it would be too easy for the man next in line to have the top man killed and for him to take over. FITZGERALD believes rather that the syndicate is controlled by a group of top hoodlums and that any important decision is made by the group with minor problems being handled by the individuals handling the territory in which the minor problem arises.

OK
FITZGERALD advised that he had made a special study of the way the syndicate has taken over numerous businesses by the filing of involuntary bankruptcy proceedings. FITZGERALD stated that one particular case involved a company which operated the ice making business for the hockey games at the Chicago Stadium. The company operating this business hired an auditor who turned out to be a syndicate member. This auditor spotted the weaknesses of the company and determined who the creditors were. Before the owners knew what was happening, they had lost the business.

On April 2, 1958, [redacted] State's Attorney's Police, Criminal Court Building, 2600 South California Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, advised he had recently talked with CHARLES "CHICK" ROSS, who furnished no information and was most uncooperative. He understood ROSS has a Chicago address of 7301 North Sheridan Road, but that his permanent address is in Las Vegas, Nevada where his wife and family reside.

Concerning CARMEN BASTONE, he remarked that his office had been unable to locate him for questioning and stated he had unconfirmed information that BASTONE was the person who was to drive the Dunn Brothers van loaded with slot machines and further he was a so-called body guard and Lieutenant for CHICK ROSS.

On April 3, 1958, CARMEN BASTONE, 3821 North Sawyer, Chicago, Illinois, was interviewed by SAs KEMPF and FRANKFURT at his residence. The article states that the lottery equipment in BASTONE's car consisted of punch boards, fish bowl tickets and a matchbook type of gambling device. Police said it could bring in as much as $100,000 if it were put to use.

On May 1, 1958, Captain BALSWICK advised SA FRANKFURT that CHICK ROSS and BASTONE were discharged in connection with the above arrest.

According to this informant, this break came about when LADON was supposed to pick up VOGEL at the Chicago Athletic Club but was stopped for speeding while enroute. LADON reportedly told the officer that he was one of VOGEL's men and could not be arrested. The Police officer accompanied LADON to the Athletic Club where he picked up VOGEL and took them down to the Central Police Headquarters. Although no arrests were made, VOGEL left instructions that LADON was not to be permitted to use the elevator to VOGEL's apartment.

On June 18, 1954, an article appeared in the Chicago Daily News captioned "Gambling Spot - - - Gutknecht Seeking Owner of the Fort." He said his investigators have learned that the property is held in trust by the Liberty National Bank. The beneficiary is stated to be NATHAN LADON, 4918 Kimbark, who is described by relatives as a real estate man. When State's Attorney investigators called at the LADON home they were told by a Mrs. [REDACTED] LADON, that he was out of town.

According to GUTKNECHT, EDWARD VOGEL, reputed slot machine king, was beneficiary of the trust, however, one piece of the property - - - The Fort, was assigned to LADON. He did not know how many additional pieces of property are included in the trust. The property was bought September 4, 1948 by ANNE KARRAS who paid $23,500 for it. He filed a Declaration of Intention on March 29, 1926 and was admitted to United States Citizenship on September 27, 1928. He was reported to be married to ANN NADIAN FENNER and they have one son born March 3, 1942.

After FENNER's release from the Army for dependency on April 30, 1944, he returned to Local 705 of the Teamsters Union and it is reported that at this time many of the Business Agents of the Union were removed and FENNER was placed in complete charge of all business affairs of Local 705. The deposed agents criticized FENNER for his strong-arm tactics and expressed the opinion that he is backed by the racketeer element. No effort was made to establish such allegations at this time, however, it was noted that FENNER had no union experience prior to his association with the Chicago Teamsters and Chauffers Union.

By letter dated April 24, 1951, the Miami Office advised that VOGEL was arrested by the Palm Beach Police Department on April 23, 1951. At this time he was living with ANN FENNER who was driving a 1950 light tan Cadillac convertible with 1951 Illinois license 999-189.

A check of automobile registration records revealed that this license number was issued to Mrs. A. E. FENNER, 2618 Lakeview Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, on a Cadillac.

The Miami Office advised, by teletype dated December 5, 1953, that VOGEL was residing at the Saxony Hotel in October, 1953 during a meeting of the top Chicago hoodlums and that one long distance telephone call made by VOGEL was to Graceland 7-0298. This number was issued to EDWARD FENNER, 2618 Lakeview Avenue, apartment 2E. It was determined by the Chicago Office at this time that EDWARD FENNER was President of Local 705, Chicago Teamsters and Chauffers Union.

Miscellaneous

On May 5, 1958, the address of 3303-3305 West Madison Street, Chicago, Illinois, was checked to ascertain if this address is operating a book. The address at 3303 West Madison is Terry's Grill and the address of 3305 is the Spaulding Barber Shop. It was determined by physical check that no book is presently operating at either of these addresses.

A physical check of the address of 4817 West 65th Street, Chicago, Illinois, reveals this is a small restaurant attached to a larger un-named building which appeared to be permanently locked. It was not possible to determine whether a book was being presently operated at this address.

VOGEL SHOULD BE CONSIDERED ARMED AND DANGEROUS BECAUSE OF HIS DANGEROUS PROPENSITIES.
